

Willie Best (1913-1962)

[a.k.a. Sleep 'n' Eat]

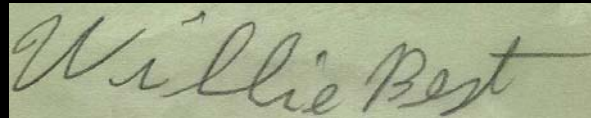

Confirmed Authentic Exemplars

From
Willie Best
to Monk

A photograph of a handwritten note on aged paper. The text is written in a cursive script using a fountain pen. The word "From" is at the top, followed by "Willie Best" and "to Monk" on separate lines. A small portion of a yellow object is visible on the left edge.

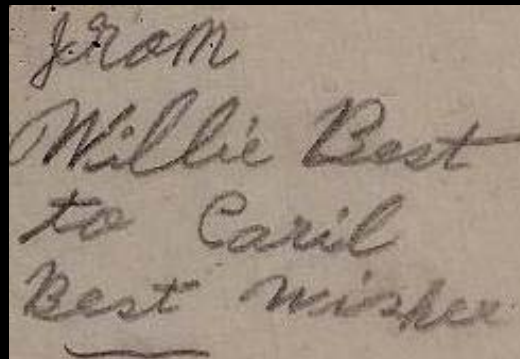

Signature in fountain pen (c. 1935)
Courtesy of Roger Hurlburt

Willie Best

A photograph of a handwritten signature in pencil on a light-colored surface. The signature "Willie Best" is written in a cursive script.

Signature in pencil (1936)

From
Willie Best
to Carol Best Wispex

A photograph of a handwritten note on aged paper. The text is written in a cursive script using a pencil. The word "From" is at the top, followed by "Willie Best" and "to Carol" on separate lines. The last line reads "Best Wispex" with a horizontal line underneath.

Signature in pencil (c. 1942)
Courtesy of Sig Menchel

Secretarial Exemplars

None available at present