

Clara Bow (1905-1965)

Confirmed Authentic Exemplars

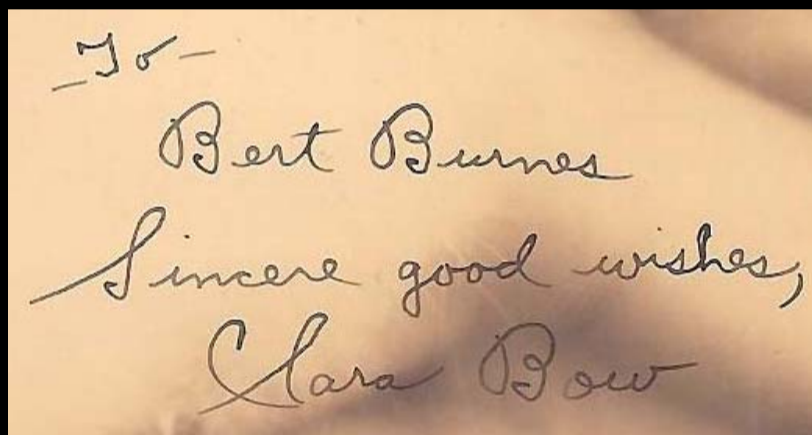

July 13, 1928.
For Mary Jane Hanson - May you always be as sweet and charming as you are now.
Sincerely your friend,
Clara Bow.

Signature in fountain pen (1928)
Courtesy of Robert Eaton of RR Auction

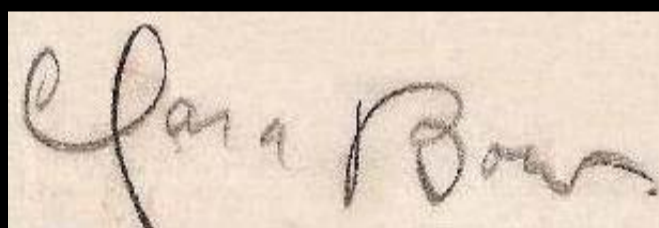

Sincerely,
Clara Bow

Signature in fountain pen (1929)
Courtesy of Tom Kramer of Golden Age Autographs

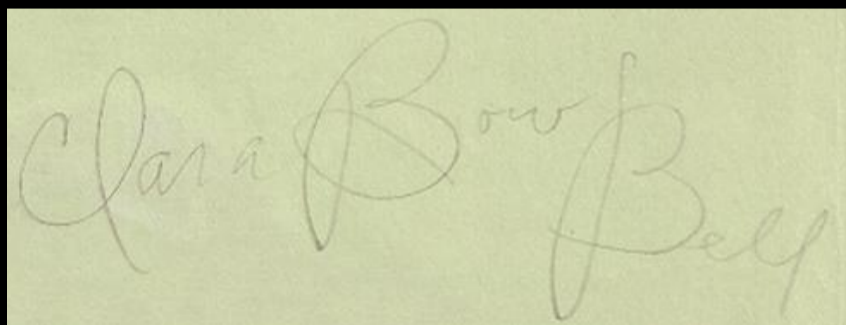

Bert Burnes
Sincere good wishes,
Clara Bow

Signature in fountain pen (c. 1929)
Courtesy of Tom Kramer of Golden Age Autographs

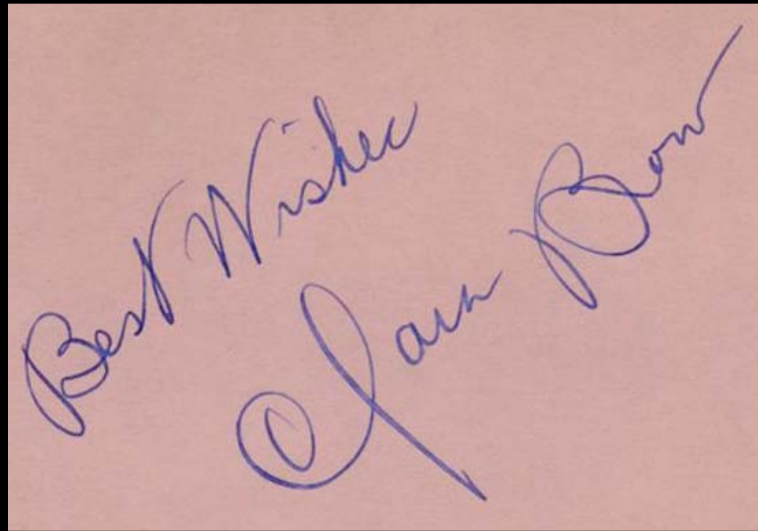

Clara Bow

Signature in pencil (1934)

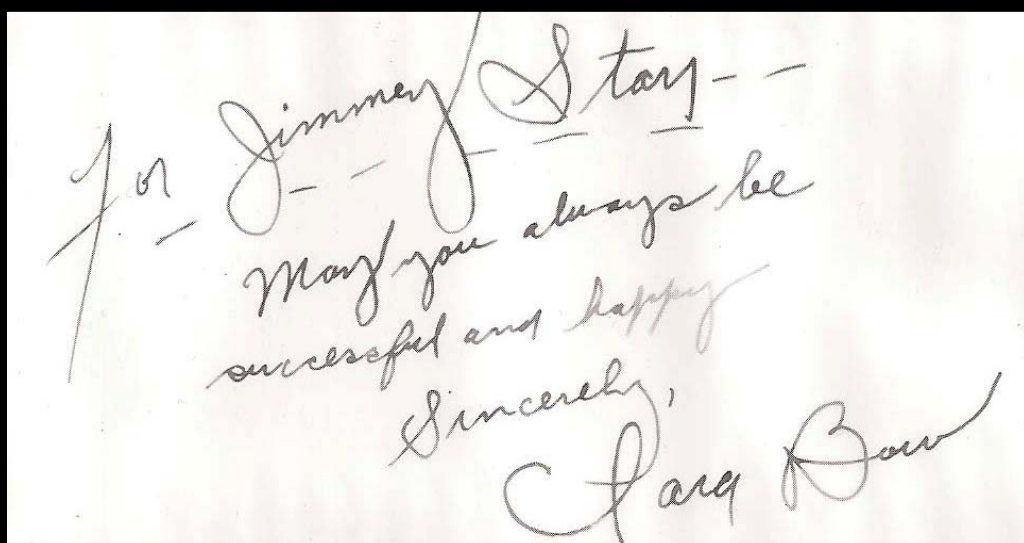

Clara Bow Bell

Signature as Clara Bow Bell in pencil (1935)

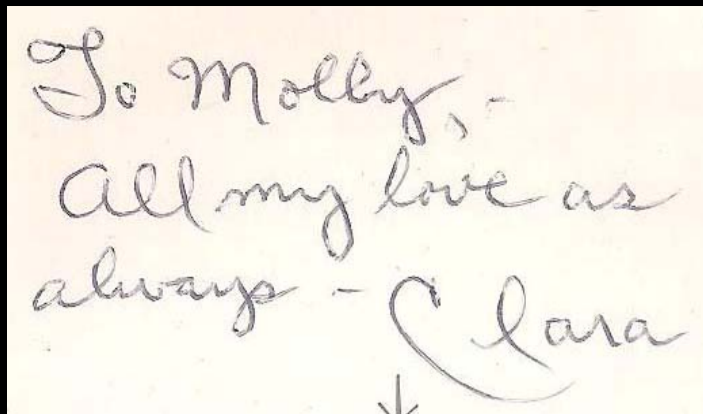

Best Wishes
Clara Bow

Signature in fountain pen (1937)
Courtesy of Tom Kramer of Golden Age Autographs

For Jimmy Stary - - May you always be successful and happy
Sincerely,
Clara Bow

Signature in fountain pen (c. 1937-1939)
Courtesy of Tom Kramer of Golden Age Autographs

A photograph of a small, rectangular piece of off-white paper with handwritten text in cursive. The text reads: "To Molly, - all my love as always - Clara". The signature "Clara" is written in a large, elegant cursive script. A small black arrow points to the bottom of the signature.

Signature in ballpoint pen (1958)
Courtesy of Tom Kramer of Golden Age Autographs

Secretarial Exemplars

None available at present