

James Cagney (1899-1986)

---

Confirmed Authentic Exemplars

Signature as Jim Cagney in fountain pen (1932)
Courtesy of David Warheit of Hanil Autographs

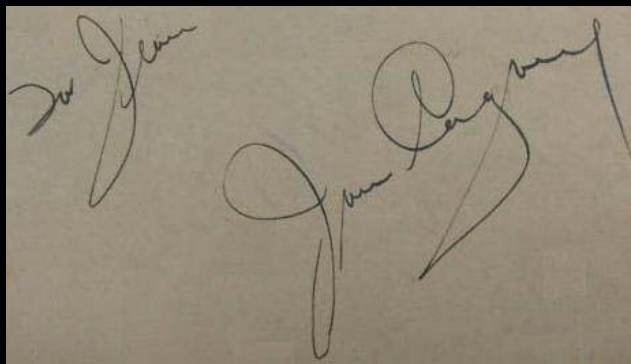

Signature as Jim Cagney in fountain pen (1934)

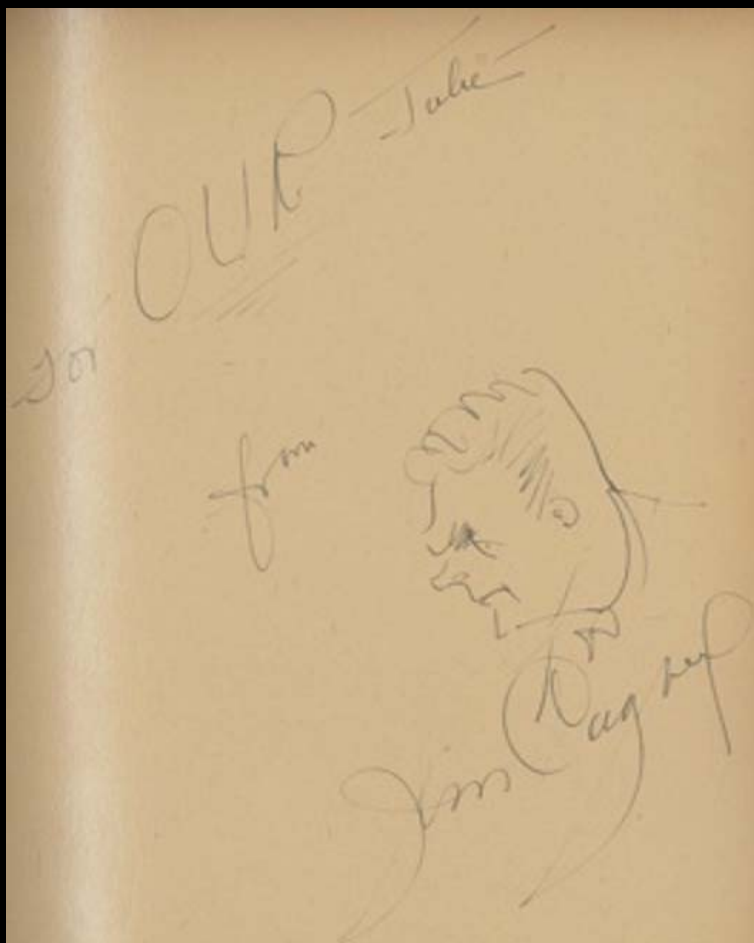

Signature as Jim Cagney in pencil (1936)

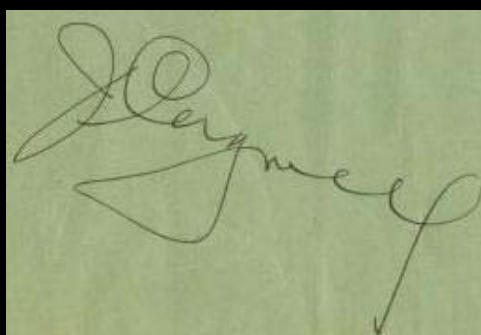

Signature as Jim Cagney in fountain pen (1938)

Signature as Jim Cagney in fountain pen (1943)

Self-caricature signed as Jim Cagney in fountain pen (1943)
Courtesy of Robert Eaton of RR Auction

Signature as J. Cagney in fountain pen (1943)

Signature as J. Cagney in fountain pen (1945)

Signature as J. Cagney in fountain pen (1947)

Signature as J. Cagney in pencil (c. 1950)

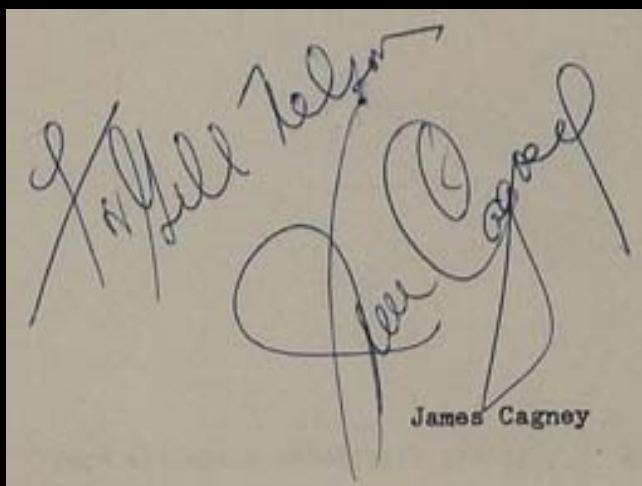

Signature in ballpoint pen (1956)
Courtesy of Robert Eaton of RR Auction

Signature as Jim Cagney in ballpoint pen (c. 1963)

Sorry to hear you Ma is poorly. Time time time has his way with us. Give her my best and pass the good word to John and your sister Things here unchanged except that I'm giving back-dancing lessons to my brother's niece just to keep things from getting too quiet during my visits. You have never seen such enthusiasm
He loves it and she (no kid) eats it up. Good for the old man too.
All for now I'll be in touch
Keep well
As ever
Jim

Portion of a handwritten letter signed as Jim in ballpoint pen (1970)
Courtesy of Robert Eaton of RR Auction

Signature as Jim Cagney in marker (1977)
Courtesy of Robert Eaton of RR Auction

Signature as Jim Cagney in ballpoint pen (1980)
Courtesy of Robert Eaton of RR Auction

Signature as Jim Cagney in marker (1986)

---

Secretarial Exemplars

None available at present