

Dwight Frye (1899-1943)

Confirmed Authentic Exemplars

A handwritten note on white paper, signed in fountain pen. The text is written in cursive and includes a circular postmark from St. Louis, MO, dated September 23, 1933. The note reads: "Dear Nancy, I went out to the Home today. Benevolent Home at Chestnut Hill home of Mrs. Eddy. Very interesting. Two beautiful places. Bill drove me. Pretty busy, am writing a short letter tonight Dwight".

Dear Nancy, I went out to the Home today. Benevolent Home at Chestnut Hill home of Mrs. Eddy. Very interesting. Two beautiful places. Bill drove me. Pretty busy, am writing a short letter tonight Dwight

Handwritten note signed in fountain pen (1933)
Courtesy of Roger Hurlburt

A handwritten signature in fountain pen on a light-colored, aged piece of paper. The signature reads "My sincere good wishes to Anita Dwight Frye".

My sincere good wishes to Anita Dwight Frye

Signature in fountain pen (c. 1934)
Courtesy of Robert Eaton of RR Auction

A handwritten signature in fountain pen on a white piece of paper. The signature reads "Thanks for remembering Dwight Frye".

Thanks for remembering Dwight Frye

Signature in fountain pen (c. 1936)
Courtesy of Roger Hurlburt

A handwritten signature in fountain pen on a light-colored, aged piece of paper. The signature reads "From Dorothy for Thanks for remembering Dwight Frye".

From Dorothy for Thanks for remembering Dwight Frye

Signature in fountain pen (1939)

A handwritten signature in fountain pen on a light-colored, aged piece of paper. The signature reads "for Bill my best wishes + thanks for remembering Dwight Frye".

for Bill my best wishes + thanks for remembering Dwight Frye

Signature in fountain pen (c. 1940)
Courtesy of Roger Hurlburt

Secretarial Exemplars

None available at present