

Halliwell Hobbes (1877-1962)

[a.k.a. Holliwell Hobbes,
Halliwell Hobbs]

Confirmed Authentic Exemplars

A portion of a handwritten letter in fountain pen, dated circa 1925. The text is written in a cursive hand and discusses the author's feelings about a performance in 'The Bishop's Son'.

In 'The Bishop's Son' I have a part which I find impossible to do anything with - It does not interest me a little bit & I know I shall fail miserably Again thank you very much Excuse this long letter of my past life!
Yours very truly
