

Leo White (1873-1948) [a.k.a. Leo Herbert White]

Confirmed Authentic Exemplar

A photograph of a handwritten signature in cursive script on a light-colored, textured paper. The signature is written in dark ink and consists of two lines. The first line reads "Best of Luck" and the second line reads "Leo White". The ink is dark and the handwriting is fluid and characteristic of the early 20th century.

Signature in fountain pen (1925)

Secretarial Exemplars

None available at present